

Assistant or Associate Professor of Finance
Kogod School of Business
American University
Washington D.C.

The Kogod School of Business at American University in Washington, D.C. is seeking a faculty member for an appointment in the Department of Finance and Real Estate. The position has tenure-track status and starts in September 2009.

JOB DESCRIPTION: We seek a motivated and well-trained researcher who also enjoys teaching and who will fit in with our active research group. Preference will be given to applicants with an interest in financial institutions, but all fields will be considered. The position entails Assistant or Associate Professor rank, depending on qualifications, and offers competitive salary and benefits.

ABOUT THE SCHOOL: The Kogod School of Business is an exciting, entrepreneurial institution with over 400 MBA and 900 undergraduate students. The school also offers an M.S. in Accounting, an M.S. in Finance, an M.S. in Finance and Real Estate and an M.S. in Taxation.

ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT: The Department of Finance and Real Estate currently has 10 tenured or tenure-track faculty members, 3 visitors and an executive in residence. Department members have published and continue to publish in top finance journals such as The Journal of Finance, Journal of Financial Economics, and The Review of Financial Studies as well as leading journals in accounting, economics, international business, management, and real estate. The Finance Department has an active research seminar series with papers presented, in-turn, by inside and outside researchers. Current research projects focus on corporate finance, financial agency issues, market microstructure and international financial economics. The group is collegial and works as a team to further individual research interests and goals.

JOB QUALIFICATIONS: Applicants must possess a Ph.D. or equivalent degree in Finance or Economics. Candidates with a Ph.D. in Economics must have a record of successful research and teaching in finance. Research records for all candidates should be commensurate with the experience of the candidate. All applicants must have a strong commitment to producing additional high quality research and must be effective teachers.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE: For administrative ease, our preference is for applicants to send all materials in electronic format, via email. Please put FINANCE TENURE TRACK POSITION and your name in the subject line of your email, or on the outside of the envelope if using regular mail. Send letter of application/nomination and curriculum vita to:
