

Associate Director of Curriculum
CAIA
Amherst, MA

Position: The position will cover alternative investments areas: hedge funds, private equity, commodities and CTAs, and real estate.

Chartered Alternative Investment Analyst Association: CAIA offers a globally recognized professional designation in the area of alternative investments (hedge funds, commodities and CTAs, private equity and real estate). CAIA currently has over 2000 members globally. Global headquarters of CAIA are located in Amherst, Massachusetts. For further information see www.caia.org.

Qualifications: PhD or ABD with specialization in alternative investments. ABDs in advanced dissertation stages may be considered provided that they have at least 3 years of industry experience. Candidates with a MBA degree will be considered provided that they have at least 5 years of industry experience. Teaching experience is highly desirable. Excellent writing skills are essential.

Job Responsibilities: CAIA intends to hire 4 Associate Directors. Each Associate Director is expected to follow academic research and industry trends in one or two areas of alternative investments, write instruction material, develop examinations, participate in industry and academic conferences and interact with investment professionals.

Application: Candidates are invited to send an application letter, resume and at least two references to either CAIA Association, 29 S. Pleasant St., Amherst, MA 01002 or e-mail hr@caia.org. Selection process begins in October 2008 and continues until the positions are filled.

Salary and Benefits: CAIA offers a competitive salary and benefit package. CAIA is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer and encourages applications from women and minorities as well as other qualified individuals.

Posted 10/8