

Four Faculty Positions in real estate
George L. Argyros School of Business And Economics
Chapman University
Orange, Ca

Chapman University seeks applications for four faculty positions in the George L. Argyros School of Business and Economics. Chapman University, located in the heart of Orange County, California, offers traditional undergraduate programs in the arts and sciences and select pre-professional and graduate programs. Ranked in the top ten of western masters comprehensive universities by U.S. News and World Report, Chapman has gained national recognition with its commitment to excellence through research and innovative teaching. More information about the Argyros School of Business and Economics is available at <http://www.chapman.edu/argyros>. We are actively seeking candidates for the following:

- Ralph W. Leatherby Chair in Entrepreneurship
- George and Barbara Bush Chair in International Business
- C. Larry Hoag Chair in Real Estate and Finance
- Assistant, Associate, or Full Professor of Real Estate

Candidates must have demonstrated teaching and research interests in the specified area. The positions offer a competitive salary and anticipated teaching load of three courses per year for the chairs and four courses per year for the non-chaired position. Research support is typically guaranteed during the first two summers and is available on a competitive basis thereafter. Excellent teaching is required and classes are kept small in order to foster interaction between students and faculty. Chairs will be expected to provide academic leadership and interact with the external community.

Assistant Professor candidates must demonstrate significant promise for scholarly research. Candidates for appointment at the rank of Associate or Full Professor must have records of significant accomplishment in the areas of teaching and research. Associate or Full Professor candidates in real estate will be expected to provide leadership in designing academic programs related to real estate, and engage in student advising and service. All candidates must hold the Ph.D.

Interested candidates should email a cover letter, CV, and list of references to Jack Broughton at asbefinance@chapman.edu. Please indicate the name of the position applied for in the subject line. The positions are open until filled.
