

UNIVERSITY OF SAN DIEGO, School of Business, Burnham-Moores Center for Real Estate

Seeking candidates for a tenure-track faculty member position starting Fall of 2009 or sooner. Teaching interests should include development and/or sustainable real estate, real estate finance, investment and real estate economics. Rank flexible depending on background. Candidates should have a terminal degree, excellent teaching/presentation skills and solid research record or potential. Interests in environmental economics and sustainable real estate is a plus. Visiting faculty will be considered for one year positions.

The Real Estate Center offers academic curriculum at the undergraduate and graduate levels, including a Master of Science in Real Estate (MSRE) degree. For more info, visit <http://www.usdrealstate.com> or contact Charles Tu, tuc@sandiego.edu or Norm Miller nmiller@sandiego.edu.

To apply formally we will need an application letter, curriculum vitae, evidence of teaching effectiveness, research samples, and three letters of reference. Applications will be reviewed as received and the position will remain open until filled. Please send to: Dr. Charles Tu, Search Committee Chair, Burnham-Moores Center for Real Estate, School of Business Administration, USD, 5998 Alcalá Park, San Diego, CA 92110-2492, (619)-260-5942, tuc@sandiego.edu.

USD is an equal opportunity employer committed to diversity and equality in education and employment.

Posted 10/8